

Justin Beibers Crazy Ride

The “beliebers” can’t seem to believe this one; Justin Bieber was arrested in Miami Beach Florida early Thursday morning after being pulled over for drag racing. He was charged with drunk driving, resisting arrest and driving without a valid license. Just after 4 a.m. Thursday, the 19- year- old Bieber was seen drag racing in a yellow Lamborghini going 55 to 60 mph in a 30 mph residential area of Miami Beach. Sources say he was coming home from the SET nightclub. Although he was not alone, he was seen racing a red Ferrari; the driver of the red Ferrari was a 19-year-old jam artist who is a friend of Bieber’s.

The two were spotted and pulled over by police officer Martinez, who then began to search Bieber. Martinez said Bieber was being belligerent, smelled of alcohol and had blood shot eyes. Cursing and foul language was coming from the pop star, and he was also quoted saying, “What the f did I do? Why did you stop me?” At the time of the scene he was then given a sobriety test that he failed. He was taken to the Miami jail.

Bieber later made statements admitting he had been under the influence, had been smoking marijuana and consumed some prescription medicine, Martinez said. The singer was later released on a $2,500-dollar bond. He then was seen in Miami where he dropped $75,000 dollars in 1-dollar bills at a Miami strip club. This is considered just another scandalous story to add to the list of Bieber’s carry-ons. An inside reporter for Justin Bieber’s mother declined to comment on this latest story.
